GREENCASTLE BAND PLAYED AT SPEEDWAY

BOGE WEBSTER IS DIRECTOR AND MANAGER OF
LOCAL GROUP

BEST BAND IN THE WORLD

Made Sixteenth Consecutive Year for
Greencastle Members;
25 Men Went From Here

The Greencastle band for the sixteenth consecutive year played today at the Indianapolis Speedway race. Fifty-five members left here this morning about four-thirty and returned on the grounds at seven forty. George Webster is the director and manager of the Greencastle band.

A letter was received by the members from T. E. Myers thanking them for their splendid cooperation in the past and hoping for future success.

The bands assembled at the south end of the race track. This is the best band in the world and is composed of 1200 players or about 100 different groups. Shortly after the race they were assembled for the parade and selections which they played.

Front of the bands was a detail of regular soldiers with a color guard. Port Benjamin Harrison. Immediately back of them were the drum majors from the various bands in their very resplendent uniforms. Following the drum majors was a company of naval cadets from Indianapolis and then a company of the Indiana National Guard.

From the south end of the race track they marched to the northwest corner and counter marched back to the judges stand where William Mitchell, director of the Indianapolis Military band, conducted the playing of the Star Spangled Banner. They then marched around to the east corner playing continuously, and left the track there. From this point on the members were free to watch the race or to leave.

The few college bands which are part of this parade played during the race.

The members were all dressed in wearing a black bow tie, white shirt, paper hat, black trousers, and black shoes. No women are allowed in this band.

Governor Rules Easton Must Die

ORDER SENTENCE TO BE ELECTROCUTED AT STATE PRISON
NEXT SATURDAY

INDIANAPOLIS, May 30 (AP)—Governor M. Clifford Townsend recalled yesterday a clemency plea made for Orelle Easton, 25 years old, of Clay City, N. D., farm hand, under sentence to be electrocuted at State Prison early next Saturday for the slaying of Indiana State Policeman Dixon.

Ten days ago Mrs. Carl Easton of Clay City, the condemned man's mother, asked the Governor to commute the sentence to life imprisonment.

The Governor said he believed Easton was given a fair trial. No sentence was offered by Mrs. Easton, attorney and a minister who accompanied her here that would warrant setting aside the death sentence.

Dixon was killed a year ago when he attempted to question Easton and his brother Clarence, 27, near Michi City. Clarence was shot and killed near Des Moines, Ill., by a posse that captured Orelle.

Infant Found Dead Monday

TWO MONTHS OLD SON OF MR. AND MRS. CLYDE FRAZIER
DIED OF HEART ATTACK

The two months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Frazier of Roachdale, was found dead by the parents Monday at their home. It was believed heart failure was the cause of the baby's death.

Besides the parents, the child is survived by two brothers and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Gibbs in Bainbridge. The body was removed to the latter's home, where the funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock.

HOSPITAL NOTES.
Mrs. Ora Day of Fillmore was admitted to the county hospital Saturday for treatment.

DR. JOHN G. BENSON WILL SPEAK AT TURKEY RUN

Dr. John G. Benson, superintendent of the Methodist hospital, will speak in the old log chapel at Turkey Run State Park Sunday morning, June 4. His subject will be "Outlooks and Uplifts." Dr. Benson is well known in this community because he has been pastor of a number of local Methodist churches and because at one time he was in charge of the Rockville chautauqua. All of his old friends are invited to hear him speak in Turkey Run's log chapel Sunday.

Rev. Ostrom Sees English Royalty

THE DAILY BANNER IS IN RECEIPT OF LETTER TELLING OF EVENTS

The Daily Banner is in receipt of the following letter from the Rev. Henry Ostrom who had the good fortune to be in Toronto, Canada when the king and queen of England were in that city:

"If you ever saw a city of nearly a million population swept by enthusiasm, you could have seen it more than duplicated here in this beautiful city, edging Lake Ontario, due to the visit of the King and Queen.

Scores and scores of raised seats had been built on vacant lots. People claimed their places to view the royal couple hours before the parade was due. The national flag was displayed by the thousands and decorations in national colors on houses, on university buildings, on lamp posts and on government buildings, exceeded anything of the kind I ever saw. As you doubtless heard by radio the cheering was thunderous. All forms of general business activity suspended. Even the post offices were closed.

The Royal couple provided a pleasing impression. Especially the Queen was mentioned on all sides as so charming a person. And all over the place in store windows, were beautiful plaques reading "God save our King and Queen."

If I say that the enthusiasm was tremendous, I should hunt for a stronger word.

Sincerely,
Henry Ostrom.

BIRTHS.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Babcock, Greencastle, Route 1, are the parents of a son born Saturday afternoon at the Putnam county hospital.

A daughter was born Monday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gardner, Limesdale Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Parker of Cloverdale are the parents of a son born Sunday morning at the county hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon C. Wells, Greencastle Route 2, are the parents of a daughter born Monday morning at the Putnam county hospital.

Five Appointed For Conference

HOOSIERS TO SERVE ON SOCIAL SERVICE MISSION OF 22 MEMBERS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 30.—(UP)—Five Hoosiers will serve on a social service mission of 22 members which will participate in a conference at Caracas, Venezuela, next month, to discuss social welfare problems.

Indiana members of the mission are: The Rev. John F. O'Hara, president of the University of Notre Dame; Val Nolan, United States district attorney; James E. McCarthy, dean of the College of Commerce at the University of Notre Dame; Dr. William F. Cunningham, professor of educational administration at Notre Dame; and Miss Tess Marie Gork, executive secretary of the Catholic Youth organization at Gary.

Members of the mission leave New York for Caracas June 16. The mission was invited by President Lopez Contreras of Venezuela, who is planning a national social welfare program for the country.

According to the Rev. Fr. O'Hara, it will be the first meeting of its kind in the Americas.

AGED CITIZEN PASSED AWAY EARLY TUESDAY

JOHN BROWNFIELD DIED MEMORIAL DAY MORNING AT HOME ON SOUTH LOCUST STREET

WAS DEPAUW'S OLDEST GRAD

Held Goodwin Cane For Past Two Years. Was Member Of Class Of 1870

John Brownfield, 90 years old, and possessor of the DePauw cane given successively to the oldest living graduate of Asbury-DePauw University, died at his home at 1008 south Locust street in Greencastle at 5 o'clock this morning. He was the father of Dr. Lillian Beeson Brownfield, one of the member of the faculty of DePauw university.

John Brownfield, son of John Brownfield and Lydia Ann Beeson, was born in South Bend, Ind., on July 4, 1849. He was prepared for college in Miss Bacon's private school and the Northern Indiana college.

In 1865 he entered the preparatory school of Asbury College, where he was graduated A. B. in 1870. In 1872 he married Juanna Kelley of South Bend, and in June 1872 was graduated from the Harvard law school. After graduation he entered upon the practice of law in South Bend, which he followed until removal to Indianapolis in 1884 except for a few years when he was owner and editor of The Union, a democratic paper, the predecessor of the South Bend Times. After his return to South Bend in 1889 he was connected with the Campbell Paper Box Co., until his retirement in 1912. Since then he has made his home with his daughter in Chicago, Gary, and since 1922 in Greencastle.

Since commencement, June, 1938, Mr. Brownfield has been the holder of the Goodwin memorial cane, as oldest alumnus of DePauw university.

Mr. Brownfield was the brother of Mrs. Marvin Campbell. Survivors are the widow and two daughters, Mrs. Orville N. Barker of Chicago and Dr. Lillian B. Brownfield, professor of English literature at DePauw university; two nephews, John B. Campbell and Marvin Rudolph Campbell of South Bend and one niece, Mrs. Walter A. Hager of South Bend, Ind.

Funeral services will be held at Niles, Michigan and burial will be in the Beeson family mausoleum on the Beeson farm at Niles, Michigan.

Records of DePauw today indicated that the next holder of the DePauw cane would be Archibald Shaw of Lawrenceburg, a member of the class of 1872. There are no surviving members of the class of 1871, and Mrs. Betty Lock Hamilton, Greencastle, a member of the class of 1870, holds the DePauw bracelet for being the oldest living woman graduate. Next in line from her will be Miss Ella Browder, also a member of the class of '72.

Cow Tester Makes A Report

ALONZO WELSH OF LADOGA HAS HIGHEST TESTING COW IN TWO COUNTIES

James Taylor, the recently appointed official cow tester of the Putnam and Montgomery County Association, has made the following statistical report:

Mr. C. Alonzo Welsh of Ladoga has the distinction and honor of having the high herd in production of butter fat. The average butter fat production per cow was 43.7 lbs. with a feed cost of $2.81 per cow per month.

Mr. Taylor reports a lot of interest in this new program of work by the farmers he has contacted. He is greatly encouraged with the future prospects and interest of the farmers in this Dairy Herd Improvement Association work.

20 Years Ago IN GREENCASTLE

Clair Albin and Roscoe Scott were in a group of boys at the Blue Hole in Big Walnut, who tried to rescue John Rockey, 12 years old, who was drowned. Scott stepped off a ledge into a deep hole and was being carried down stream, and Clair Albin started to rescue him. Wilber Albin then went in to rescue both, seeing they were having trouble. He brought Scott to the shore. John Rockey and Robert Bryan then went in to get Clair Albin, who also badly needed help. John Halbert Stoner and Gilbert Snider formed another rescue squad and got Albin out. Carl Allen sought to save Rockey but the latter fought his rescuer until the latter got a cramp in one leg, upon which Rockey sank and was drowned. Harry Black located the boy's body forty-five feet down stream, and Stoner brought it to land. Rockey had lived with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Shields, McCray since he was four months old. Pall bearers at his funeral were Roscoe Scott, Wayne Gillen, Bertram Huestis, Robert Graham, Philip Maxwell, Park Bryan.

The baby clipper, 650-pound plane which Smith lifted from Old Orchard Beach, Me., more than forty hours ago, undoubtedly was down because her 160 gallons of gasoline would not have sufficed for sustained flight longer than that.

Smith's plane had no radio. A bumper crop of reports from outlying regions in the British Isles yesterday said that his plane was believed to have been sighted, but none was borne out.

Smith, 25-year old aviation salesman who participated in a record endurance flight for light planes last November, streaked the baby clipper 1,920 feet along the wavepacked Old Orchard Beach sands and at 4:50 A. EX-STATE OFFICIALS FACING FRAUD TRIAL

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 30.—A dozen high Pennsylvania Democrats were given two weeks today to make ready for trial on various charges of pay roll padding and extortion of campaign funds under indictments sustained by a judge who said there could be no appeal from his ruling.

District Attorney Carl B. Shelley said he had not decided which of the Democratic leaders including three members of the cabinet of former Governor George H. Earle, would be called first, June 12.

In sustaining the indictments, Judge Howard W. Hughes overruled the contention of counsel for the twelve that the indictments were obtained "illegally." They charged the jurors had been "unduly influenced" by the Republican district attorney, Shelley, and his staff.

First hurled by Democrats against Democrats in the heated primary campaign of 1938, the charges were taken up by Republicans in the Fall campaign in which they won back control of the state.

Former cabinet members are David L. Lawrence Democratic state chairman and former secretary of the commonwealth; Ralph M. Bashore, secretary of the state Democratic committee and former secretary of labor and industry, and Roy E. Brownmiller, former secretary of highways.

The special grand jury that recommended the indictments is in indefinite recess after six months of investigation.

Decoration Day Here Was Quiet

ALL OF BUSINESS HOUSES
CLOSED; MANY CITIZENS
WENT ELSEWHERE

Decoration Day was a quiet one in Greencastle, as the organized observance was held Sunday. Many residents of the city and others from a distance, many of whom had lived here in past years, visited the cemetery, however.

Many Greencastle citizens went elsewhere for the day, the race at the Speedway having a large representation from here, including the members of the city band, who played for the great sports event.

All of the stores and business houses were closed in observance of the day and the drug stores observed Sunday closing hours.

Bergdoll Denies German War Aid

RETURNED DODGER ISSUES
STATEMENT FROM PRISON
CELL

NEW YORK, May 30.—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, World War draft dodger, proclaimed his love for the United States today and hoped he would have an opportunity sometime to show he could be a worthwhile part of the country.

Bergdoll, who surrendered to military authorities when he returned from Germany last week after a nineteen-year exile, sent out a plea from his cell on Governor's Island that the public treat him like any other prisoner taking his punishment.

In a four-page statement, issued through his attorney, Harry Weinberger, he denied he had offered his services to Germany during the war. He said:

"I was a conscientious objector at the time of the draft."
Lauds U. S. Freedom.

Bergdoll said he had returned voluntarily to face a five-year jail sentence because time had increased his appreciation of a free country. He added:

"It was only when my children neared school age that I knew poignantly I wanted them to go to schools free from hate and regimentation and free in a democracy dedicated to liberty."

He emphasized that nothing in Germany or Europe had anything to do with his desire to return. He said:

"No one in Germany expected war and as an American citizen I would not have been drafted."

Insists He's Paying.
Suggesting that some of his critics compare his plight with that of Edward Everett Hale's, "the man without a country," Bergdoll said:

"For all my faults of youth I have paid and am continuing to pay the penalty."

Bergdoll said the government had not threatened to confiscate his property, but merely had announced the proceeds from its sale would be turned over to the treasury to hold until he ceased to be a fugitive from justice or died.

Evens Garden SHOWS RESULT OF MUCH WORK

THROUGH UNITED EFFORTS
DISPLAY IS ONE OF HORTICULTURAL PERFECTION

NOT VISIBLE FROM HIGHWAY

There is a Mixing of Species Which Insures Presence of Blossom Throughout the Season

The flower garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evens, West Walnut street road, is one in which both husband and wife labor. The result of their united efforts through a number of years is a display now of horticultural perfection that is a genuine achievement. Their flowers and shrubbery are too far away from the highway to be visible to passers-by, and only a comparatively few of the persons who regularly drive over the route know of its existence. It merits the inspection of all residents of the vicinity who are flower admirers.

There is a mixing of species which insures the presence of blossoms of several kinds all through the season. And, too, there is a mixing of colors that, at some distance, produces the effect of the hues of an oriental rug—thoroughly harmonious, but distinct, nevertheless.

Just now, in the Evens garden of flowers, the daisies are in prominence. There are the Shasta and the English, and the painted, the latter of pastel shades that are charming.

Then there is the sweet rocket, white lupin, blue flax, bachelor buttons, lemon lilies, oriental poppies, four Japanese iris 60 varieties of iris, including the deep blue English lily; pansies, columbines, sweet williams, fox glove, pink wigelia, and roses of many kinds.

Over in the part that is particularly Mr. Evens' responsibility he has 1,500 maturing "glad" plants, ten or twelve thousand just starting, 200 dahlias, and some other bulbs that are beginning to make themselves interesting.

There is a rock-lined pool in another part of the grounds in which three varieties of water lily are growing, including one white species taken from the former lily pond near Flatwoods, southeast of town.

Penn Labor Act Changes Voted

SIT-DOWNS OUTLAWED AND EMPLOYERS GIVEN EIGHT TO PETITION

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 30.—A bill setting up sharply-defined limits within which employers and labor groups can carry on union activity in Pennsylvania was passed Monday by the Legislature.

Sit-down strikes would be outlawed as "an unfair labor practice" and "an illegal act."

The measure, making extensive revisions in the state labor relations act passed during the preceding Democratic administration, was sent to Republican Governor Arthur H. James for his signature.

Employers are given the right to petition the State Labor Board for a collective bargaining election under the measure.

The "check-off" of union dues—a clause contained in many labor contracts—is prohibited unless authorized by a secret, majority vote of the employees and written individual authorization from each employee.

"The state labor act now is really a criminal code," protested James L. McDevitt, president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, A. F. of L.

"The new bill just about nullifies the labor relations act. Certainly there was no justification for these sweeping changes."

Patrick T. Fagan, a district president of the United Mine Workers, C. I. O., and a member of the state board that administers the labor act, declared:

"The bill destroys every vestige of advance that has been made by the worker in this state. Labor would be better off the entire (labor relations) act were repealed."

But Senator Weldon Helburn, chairman of the Senate labor committee, asserted "this measure is a long step toward recovery. Employers should have the same breaks as employees."

Spokesmen for industry claimed at hearings the old act, drawn up along lines of the national labor relations act during the Democratic administration of former Governor George H. Earle, was "one-sided."

Miss McCullough has been teaching in the public schools of Greencastle for the past five years and is well-known in this community. She attended DePauw University and received her teachers training at Central Normal College and Butler University.

Mr. Dillon has been connected with aviation for several years as pilot, transportation agent and assistant field manager for Eastern Airlines. For the past he has been in charge of the radio air traffic control tower at the Municipal Airport at Indianapolis.

McFarland Reunion Held Sunday, May 28th

The McFarland family reunion was held Sunday, May 28, at the old McFarland homestead northeast of Greencastle. A bountiful pitch-in dinner was enjoyed at the noon hour. Forty persons were present. The afternoon was spent in playing games, taking pictures and visiting.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Enzley Ferris and Mrs. Robert Kelley of Hammond; Mr. and Mrs. Jean Wheeler and daughters, Vera Jean and Helen, of Noblesville; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bright and David Sewell of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mercer and sons, Jackie and Dickie; Mrs. Frank Cooper and children, Von and Rogene, of Brazil; Mr. and Mrs. James McNeff and children, Ronald and LaDonna, of Bridgeton; Mr. and Mrs. Forest McFarland and sons, Bernard and Eugene, of near Bainbridge; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McFarland and children, Wilma Jean and Basel, of near Coatesville; Mr. and Mrs. George Cone of Greencastle; Mr. and Mrs. Fay Chiles and sons, Bobby and Doyle, of Fillmore; and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chiles and daughter, Loretta Ann, who reside on the old McFarland homestead.

BAINBRIDGE COMMUNITY REVIVAL

The Community revival at Bainbridge was attended by capacity audiences at both services again on Sunday. The Rev. J. T. Wilson delivered two splendid Gospel sermons, and the audience and both choirs joined in the singing under the capable leadership of the Rev. and Mrs. Virgil Brock. There were eight additions for the day.

Beginning Tuesday night and throughout the rest of the week, including Saturday night, there will be special programs with Rev. Brock delivering the message of the evening. The merchants of the town are co-operating by closing each night during the services except Saturday night. Everyone is invited to attend these community services.

Telegram Sent Jokers Stops Game

Somewhere around Old environments lurk a couple of jokers.

Monday, May 8, DePauw's ball squad was to have played ham. A large crowd was on hand to see the game. The Tiger line-up was up. But the Quakers didn't show up. So the pitcher threw one to the catcher, and the umpire declared the game a 9-0 forfeit win for DePauw.

On Wednesday of the same week Coach J. O. Huntsman, athletic director at Earlham, brought the ham golf team here for a rematch. Coach Umbricht, Huntsman why the Earlham had failed to show up. Hunts said that he had received a telegram from Athletic director Moffett calling the game.

Upon investigating Moffett Umby found that a telegram had been sent. It read:

To—J. O. Huntsman
Earlham College
Earlham, Indiana
Cancellation of Monday game necessary. Sending dates by letter.

D. C. Moffett, the telegraph operator here that the telegram was sent by fellows whom he supposed to be DePauw students. The one who the telegram signed his name, Sanders, ATO house.

Coach Moffett announced that he has not yet learned the identity of the individuals who sent telegram, but that every effort be made to apprehend them.

The game was re-played on Saturday, May 20, and ended in a 1-0 victory for DePauw.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Service of line, Illinois, stopped in Greencastle on their way to New York. Mrs. Service was formerly Miss Peters.

Do You Know Montgomery Ward?

Question 1

Is it the same Montgomery Ward that puts out the catalog? Yes. It's the same company that has been selling dependable merchandise since 1872. Hundreds of Greencastle families have bought regularly from Montgomery Ward catalogs. The new store is opening here to give Greencastle families better shopping service.

Question 2

Will the store sell catalog merchandise? Yes. And thousands of other items not shown in the catalog. Wards will sell all types and qualities of merchandise. Naturally we will not have room in the store for every one of the catalog items—windmills and wagons and such merchandise take too much room. But our Catalog Order Service will bring you quickly any of the 100,000 different items shown in the catalog.

Question 3

Will the Ward store help Greencastle? Of course. Greencastle workmen have had jobs making the building ready. Greencastle salespeople will be employed to serve you behind the counters. The store will pay Greencastle taxes, and will buy and bank in Greencastle. Wards will naturally work to make Greencastle a greater, more prosperous city.

Question 4

What will the Ward store look like? Wards will be the most modern store in town. You will see new displays, wide aisles and clear lighting. You'll enjoy shopping at Wards.

Question 5

Do Wards sell nationally-advertised products? Yes. And Wards sell other products, identical in quality to the nationally-advertised brands. These other products are made by famous manufacturers, and bear Wards own label. When you buy a Ward product, you pay less for the same quality because you do not pay the cost of heavy advertising campaigns.

Question 6

Do Wards still guarantee satisfaction? Certainly. Montgomery Ward has maintained that policy since 1872. Wards Bureau of Standards, in Chicago, is constantly testing our merchandise to be sure that it will wear well and give you the best possible service. You must be satisfied with every article you buy at Wards, or your money will be refunded.

Question 7

Do Wards have credit accounts? Yes. Wards Monthly Payment Plan offers you a convenient way of buying the things you want and paying for them later. An account can be opened at Wards with any purchase totaling $10 or more. Carrying charges are figured on your unpaid balance only.

Question 8

Who is going to work at Wards? Many of the best salespeople in Greencastle will be working at Wards. You've probably known most of them for years. They are eager to serve you in their new store.

Question 9

Are Wards prices really lower than those in other stores? Yes. Merchandise is brought direct from manufacturers to you, without being handled by wholesalers or distributors. These middlemen's profits are not included in Wards prices. And, Wards sell without frills. Those extra costs are not included in Wards prices. That's why you pay less at Wards.

Question 10

Will Wards have an "Opening Sale"? Yes. Many of Wards regularly low prices will be cut even lower to help you celebrate the opening of this store with extra savings.
